If you want to appeal

You may appeal to the County Court or High Court if you believe the decision to impose a financial penalty or the level or type of financial penalty:

- is unlawful;
- is irrational or unreasonable; or
- has been made on the basis of a procedural impropriety or otherwise contravenes the rules of natural justice.

You must:

- 1) Seek the permission of the court within 28 days of this letter, and then
- 2) Tell us that you have done this within 7 days, by email or post.

If you do not pay

We'll ask our debt recovery agent to take action if you do not pay. The case will be decided in the courts.

We do not currently charge interest on this type of penalty. This may change in future.
